1. Powers of the Parliament of Canada
2. Exclusive Powers of Provincial Legislatures
3. Concurrent/Shared Powers
4. Residual Power
5. Court Interpretation of the Distribution of Legislative Powers
6. Amendments to the Constitutional Distribution of Legislative Powers

The powers of Parliament, enumerated in ss. 91 and 92 (10) of the Constitution Acts, 1867 to 1982, concern matters of national interest (see also notes). They include the following:

- Regulation of Trade/Commerce
- Unemployment Insurance (note 46)
- Direct/Indirect Taxation
- Postal Service

- Currency/Coinage
- Banking /Incorporation of Banks/Paper Money
- Weights and Measures
- Bankruptcy
- Patents
- Copyrights
- Indians/Indian reserves
- Citizenship
- Marriage/Divorce
- Criminal law, including Criminal Procedure
- Penitentiaries²
- Works connecting provinces; beyond boundaries of one province; within a province but to the advantage of Canada/or more than one province

First and Second Reading

- First: Bill introduced by sponsor, given bill number. Look for introductory statement.
- Second: Justification from sponsor, substantive debate.

Committee and Third Reading

- Most bills referred to standing or special committee after 2nd reading
 - Clause by clause debate: great for determining legislative intent
- Back for third reading: rarely debated at this point, cannot be amended

Royal Assent and Coming into Force

- AB: Royal Assent after third reading
- Fed: bill swaps Chambers, repeats three reading process before RA
- Acts and parts thereof don't necessarily come into force on RA
 - Deemed date
 - On proclamation
 - Any combination thereof
 - Rarely, retroactive.
- Legislative ghosts: never in force (no longer allowed, federally <http://laws.justice.gc.ca/eng/Reports/>)
- Amended before coming into force

Lingering Acts

- AB: Statutes Repeal Act SA 2013 cS-19.3

Mechanism for repealing anything that is more than five years old and still not in force

- CA: Statutes Repeal Act SC 2008 c20

Every year, the Minister of Justice must table an annual report prepared in accordance with the Statutes Repeal Act in both Houses of Parliament. Annual reports list Acts and provisions of Acts that have not been brought into force within at least nine years of their enactment. All Acts and provisions listed in an annual report will be repealed on December 31 in the year in which the report is tabled unless they are brought into force or are repealed before that date or unless a resolution deferring their repeal is adopted by one of the Houses of Parliament before that date.

About this collection

Scrapbook Hansard is an historical collection of newspaper clippings and a few speech transcripts covering Alberta's legislative debates from 1906 to 1971. Library staff began compiling articles as early as 1937 in order to retain a record of what transpired in the Assembly. Coverage includes the Throne Speech and debate, budget speech and debate, discussion of various bills introduced and passed in the House, and reports on the legislative discussion regarding issues of the day. This collection is a valuable resource for researching the early history of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta prior to the creation of Alberta Hansard, the official record of the Legislative Assembly, in 1972. Articles will be added as they become available.

- Michel Boudrias (Terrebonne): 2017-06-07 14:04 [p.12199]. Mr. Speaker, Quebec has its own war heroes who deserve special recognition on the occasion of that other 150th anniversary. One of them, Léo Major, is our only soldier to have been awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal, the DCM, in two separate wars. He landed at Normandy and single-handedly captured almost 100 Nazi soldiers at the Battle of the ... More. (BQ. (QC))
- Jati Sidhu (Mission—Matsqui—Fraser Canyon): 2017-06-07 14:05 [p.12199]. Mr. Speaker, I rise to celebrate the life of a courageous resident of Cache Creek. Clayton Cassidy served his community with integrity over the last 30 years as a member of the fire department, serving as fire captain and, most recently, fire chief. While investigating water levels following the floods in Cache Creek, Chief Cassidy tragically lost his life. (Lib. (BC))
