Outline

- What is legislation?
- Legislative process refresher
- Why are Laws created
- Where to find legislative materials

What is Legislation?

- Federal and Provincial:
 - Bills
 - Statutes (Acts)
 - Include revisions and consolidations
 - Regulations
- Also:
 - Municipal Bylaws
 - Federal Legislation
 - International Legislation

But How Is Legislation Created?

Statutes: Federal

1. Notice of Introduction
 - i. Only for House of Commons
2. Introduction and First Reading
 - i. House of Commons
 - ii. Senate
3. Second Reading
4. Committee Study
5. Report stage
6. Third Reading
7. Consideration by other House
8. Royal assent
9. Proclamation

Statutes: Provincial

1. Introduction
2. First Reading
3. Second Reading
4. Committee of the Whole
5. Third Reading
6. Royal Assent
7. Proclamation

Regulations

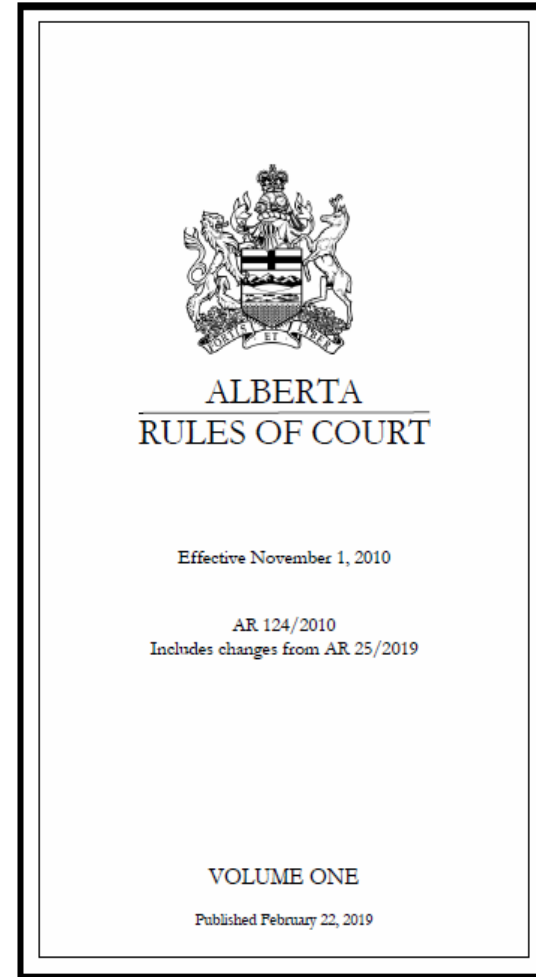

- Both Federal and Provincial Acts have Regulations attached to them
- They are:
 - Subordinate legislation (the act gives permission to create regulations)
 - Specific details (how, where, when, who)
 - Often drafted by the departments affected by the act
 - Published in Part II of both the Canada and the Alberta Gazettes
- Remember!
 - The act tells you what the law is, but the regulation tells you how to follow the law

What is an example of a popular Regulation?

Alberta Rules of Court

This important tool is actually a
Regulation!

- Judicature Act, RSA 2000, c J-2
(Current as of Dec 11, 2018)
 - Alberta Rules of Court, Alta Reg
124/2010

The Canada and Alberta Gazette

- Federal

- Part I

- public notices,
- official appointments and proposed regulations
- miscellaneous notices from the private sector that are required to be published by federal statute or by regulations

- Part II

- Amended regulations
- New regulations

- Part III

- Publishes the text of any new laws immediately after receiving royal assent

- Provincial

- Part I

- Proclamations,
- Orders in Council, Appointments,
- Resignations and Retirements,
- Government Notices and Advertisements

- Part II

- Amended regulations
- New regulations

But Why are Laws Created?

- Legislative intent
 - Why is a specific law created and for what purpose
- Key components:
 - Bills
 - Introductory statement
 - Any notes
 - Debates
 - Associated material
 - Commission reports
 - Submissions from NGOs etc

Debates of the House of Commons and Senate (Hansard)

- Both Houses publish Debates
 - From 1996-present can be found on each respective House's Debates page
 - Historical can be found under a separate tab within list

Department of Justice Canada

- Current consolidated Federal Acts and Regulations

The screenshot displays the Justice Laws Website interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the text 'Justice Laws Website' on the left and the 'Canada' logo on the right. A red maple leaf is centered in the background. Below the header is a navigation bar with dropdown menus for 'Family Law', 'Criminal Justice', 'Funding', 'Canada's System of Justice', and 'Laws'. A search bar is located on the right side of the navigation bar. Below the navigation bar, a breadcrumb trail reads 'Home → Laws Website Home → Consolidated Acts'. On the left side, there is a sidebar menu with the following items: 'Laws', 'Constitutional Documents', 'Consolidated Acts', 'Consolidated Regulations', 'Annual Statutes', 'Statutes Repeal Act: Reports, Deferrals and Repeals', 'Miscellaneous Statute Law Amendment Program', 'New Layout', 'New Layout for Legislation', 'Accessibility Buttons', 'Search', and 'Basic Search'. The main content area features a green banner with a checkmark icon and the text 'New Layout for Legislation'. Below this, a paragraph states: 'As part of ongoing efforts to improve access to justice for Canadians, the print and PDF versions of federal legislation have been given a new appearance effective January 2016.' The section is titled 'Consolidated Acts' in bold. Below the title, a paragraph explains: 'The Justice Laws Website provides an official consolidation, or updated version, of the federal Acts and regulations maintained by the Department of Justice as a convenient way for the public to view the state of the law, without having to carry out research and put together the various amended provisions.' There are two expandable sections: 'What are consolidated Acts and regulations?' and 'Are the consolidated Acts and regulations the official versions?'. Below these is a 'Find a title' search bar. The 'Acts by title' section includes an alphabetical index from A to Z. The 'Frequently Accessed Acts' section is partially visible at the bottom.

Can't trace online but don't have print on hand?

- HeinOnline!
 - A database available through your UAlberta Library Access
 - Scanned in versions of historical legislation in Canada
 - Can use it to look up the table of public statues and trace from there
 - Pros:
 - Tracing “print” online
 - Clean scans of historical legislation
 - Won't need to carry every volume needed to trace a long history
 - Cons
 - No hyperlinks to move back and forth between changes
 - Can make the tracing a touch slower

Should I do this in print?...It depends...

- Yes – “Official”?
- Yes – History of changes to a section of an Act
- Yes – To be absolutely completely comprehensive (Updated legislation; judicial consideration)
- Yes – Online results seem odd?
- Yes – When “online” is “off-line”!
