

EDMONTON LAW LIBRARIES ASSOCIATION - BYLAWS
(Consolidated with amendments to June 23, 2021)

1. MEMBERSHIP

a. TERMS OF ADMISSION

To become a member of the Association, an applicant must be of the full age of 18 years, and complete and submit an application to the Executive of the Association for Approval by the Executive. With the exception of Student and Honorary Lifetime Members, payment of annual dues is also a requirement for membership in the Association.

b. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS

The membership of the Association shall consist of:

Active Members: Any person that completes an Edmonton Law Library Association membership application and pays all related dues. Active members shall be entitled to receive notification of upcoming meetings, may attend all meetings of the Association, may vote on association business and may hold office.

Honorary Lifetime Members: Any current or past active individual member who has contributed significantly to the Association over a number of years shall be eligible for nomination to the category of Honorary Lifetime Member. Voting members of the Association shall submit nominations for lifetime membership to the Secretary no less than three (3) weeks prior to the meeting at which the nomination is to be voted upon. An affirmative seventy-five percent (75%) vote of the membership in attendance at such meetings is required. Honorary lifetime members shall have all the privileges of active members but shall be exempted from paying annual dues.

Student Members: Any person enrolled in a post-secondary course of study towards an MLS-equivalent, a certificate in records management, or a library technician diploma with an interest in legal information shall be eligible for student membership. Student members shall be entitled to receive notification of upcoming meetings, and may attend all meetings of the Association. Student members may vote on association business and may hold office.

c. RESIGNATION / EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

Any member may withdraw from the Association by sending a written resignation to the Secretary of the Association.

Any member may be expelled from membership for any cause which the Association may deem reasonable upon a majority vote at a meeting of members of the Association in good standing.

d. VOTING

Members who have paid dues for the current fiscal year are considered members in good standing. Any member in good standing shall have the right to vote at any meeting of the Association. Voting may be held in person, online, or in another digital format, as the case may be with the exception of voting for members of the executive, which can only be done in person. Votes may not be made by proxy or otherwise. Questions and resolutions put to a vote shall be determined by fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes cast. Twenty-five percent (25%) of members shall constitute a quorum.

2. DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The executive of the Association shall be comprised of a Chair-Elect, Chair, Past Chair, Secretary, Treasurer and Webmaster. Each officer must be a member of the Association in good standing and must consent to act as an officer. Officers may continue to hold the same position if re-elected. An individual may not serve on the Executive of the Association collectively for a period of greater than five (5) consecutive years. These officers together shall constitute the Executive and shall, subject to the bylaws or directions given it by majority vote at any meeting properly called and constituted, have full control and management of the affairs of the Association.

a. ELECTION AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Chair-Elect: The Chair-Elect shall be elected annually. They shall, in the temporary absence or disability of the Chair, shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chair, and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be determined by the Executive.

Chair: The Chair shall be elected annually. The Chair position is intended to be filled by the previous year's Chair-Elect. They shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Executive. They shall have the general and active management of the business of the Association, including the responsibility for all program activities. They shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Executive are carried into effect and shall sign all Bylaws and other documents requiring the signatures of the Officers of the Association.

Past Chair: The Past Chair shall be elected annually. The Past Chair position is intended to be filled by the previous year's Chair. The Past Chair shall provide advice and guidance to the executive on matters and activities of the Association. They will also perform such other duties as may from time to time be determined by the Executive.

Secretary: The Secretary shall be elected bi-annually. They shall attend all meetings of the Association and keep accurate minutes of the same. In case of the absence of the Secretary, their duties shall be discharged by such officer as may be appointed by the Executive. They shall keep an accurate and complete record of all members in good standing of the Association, send notice of meetings as required and collect the annual dues and other financial assessments on behalf of the Association. The Secretary will perform such other duties as may from time to time be determined by the Executive.

Treasurer: The Treasurer shall be elected bi-annually. They shall have custody of Association monies, shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Association, and shall deposit all monies and other valuable effect in the name and to the credit of the Association and in such depositories as may be designated by the Executive from time to time. They shall disburse funds of the Association as may be ordered by the Executive, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements and shall render to the members of the Association at regular meetings or whenever required by the Executive, an account of the financial position of the Association. They shall submit audited financial records to the Corporate Registry annually and have charge of the official archives of the Association, to be made available as necessary throughout their term. They shall also sit on the HeadStart Planning Committee to serve as liaison between the Committee and the Association. The Treasurer will perform such other duties as may from time to time be determined by the Executive. Upon expiry of their term of office, the Treasurer shall give the Association all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in their possession or under their control belonging to the Association.

Webmaster: The Webmaster shall be elected bi-annually. They shall be responsible for the maintenance and updating of the Association's website. The Executive will retain responsibility for the content of the website, while the Webmaster will perform duties such as registration of the Association with the host site, update of the information contained on the site, and reporting to the membership regarding changes, additions or deletions to the website.

b. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Nominations: The Executive shall call for nominations not later than the March meeting of every year. Nominees must be members of good standing in the Association and give written or oral notice of their willingness to stand for election.

Elections: Elections shall be held at the Annual General Meeting. Any two of the Offices of Secretary, Treasurer or Web-Master may be filled by a single person.

c. RESIGNATION / REMOVAL OF OFFICERS

An officer of the executive may be removed from office for any cause which the Association may deem reasonable upon a majority vote of members of the Association in good standing. Alternatively, an officer of the executive may resign at any time by providing a written or oral resignation to the Executive.

d. REMUNERATION

Members of the Executive shall not receive remuneration for their services.

3. MEETINGS
